

Surface Area

1. Surface Area problems ask for surface area or square feet.
2. The cone and pyramid below have a unique measurement that is used in calculating the surface area : Slant Height = l . It also has a regular height: = h . h is straight up and down the l is slanted.
3. Remember
Write the formula on a piece of paper.
Put the numbers underneath.
Calculate.

